EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
WASHINGTON

October 6, 1952

MEMORANDUM FOR:

Mr. Gordon Dean, Atomic Energy Commission
Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Major General Richard C. Partridge, Department of the Army
Rear Admiral Richard F. Stout, Department of the Navy
Major General Joseph F. Carroll, Department of the Air Force
Mr. Sam Boykin, Department of State
Captain Ernest R. Feidler, Department of the Treasury

SUBJECT: PROJECT GREEN

The President, through Mr. Lay, has directed that appropriate measures be undertaken immediately with respect to the following problem:

"Assuming Russian capability for clandestinely introducing and detonating in the United States in place demolition atomic weapons, what countermeasures are required to detect and defend against such introduction."

The President has accordingly authorized this office to collaborate with the addressees of this memorandum as representatives of the departments and agencies which should be responsible for the development and execution of the necessary countermeasures, and he has asked for a report back to him through this office on the actions taken as well as on any recommended steps requiring his consideration.

It is requested that this matter be handled with special security precautions and that it be afforded preferred attention.
